

OKLAHOMA!-O. K.

This scrapbook was created by Margie McCrory and the photographers credited at the end. It was presented to Mr. Gatlin on behalf of the cast. The photos here are unrestored to preserve the look and feel of the vintage book. However, many have been restored and can be found in the gallery and image download file at:
<http://acflora.tronola.com/>

OKLAHOMA! OPENS

MARCH 17-23

BEFORE we could open, we had to have

Hours of HARD

WORK...

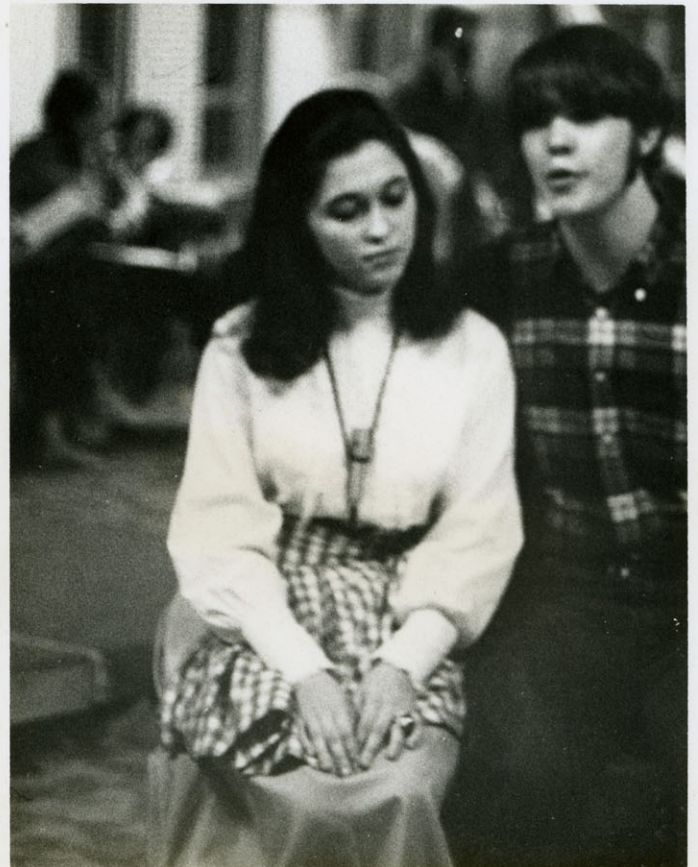

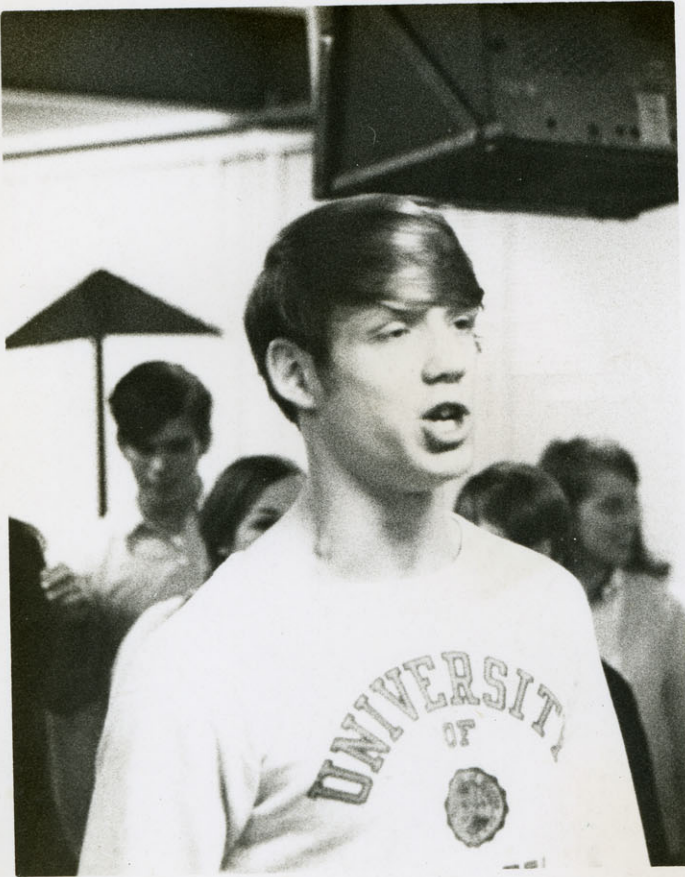

Including building sets,

Including building sets

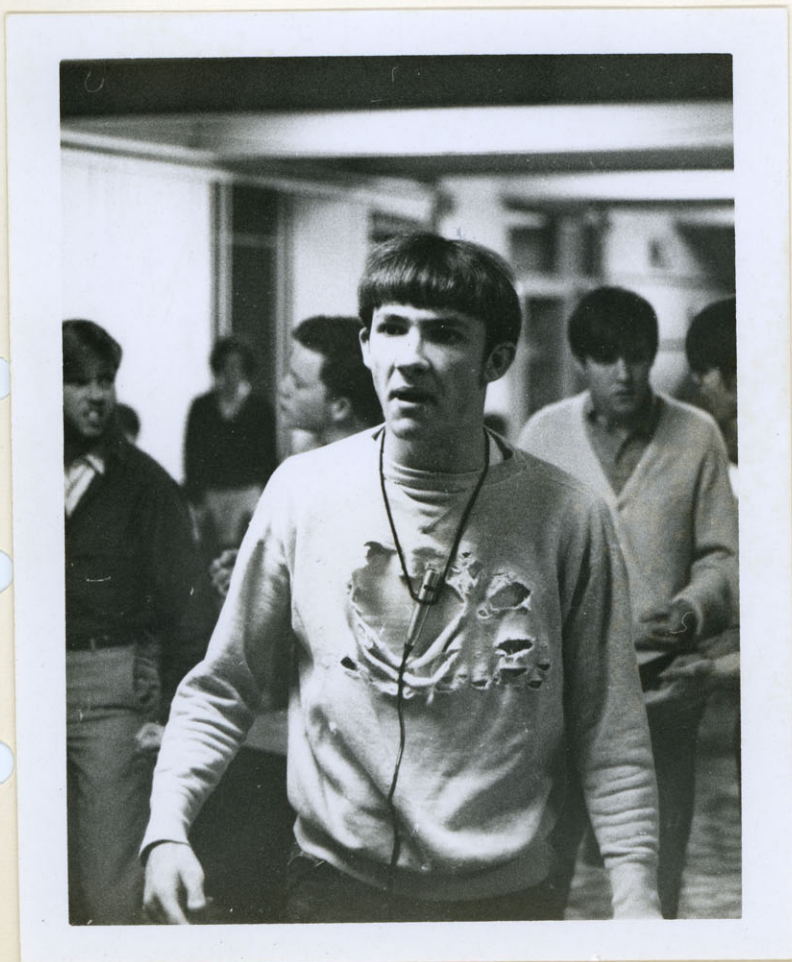

And practicing!

SOMETIMES WE FELT AS IF Nothing would go right!

Other times we felt like crying—

From fatigue,

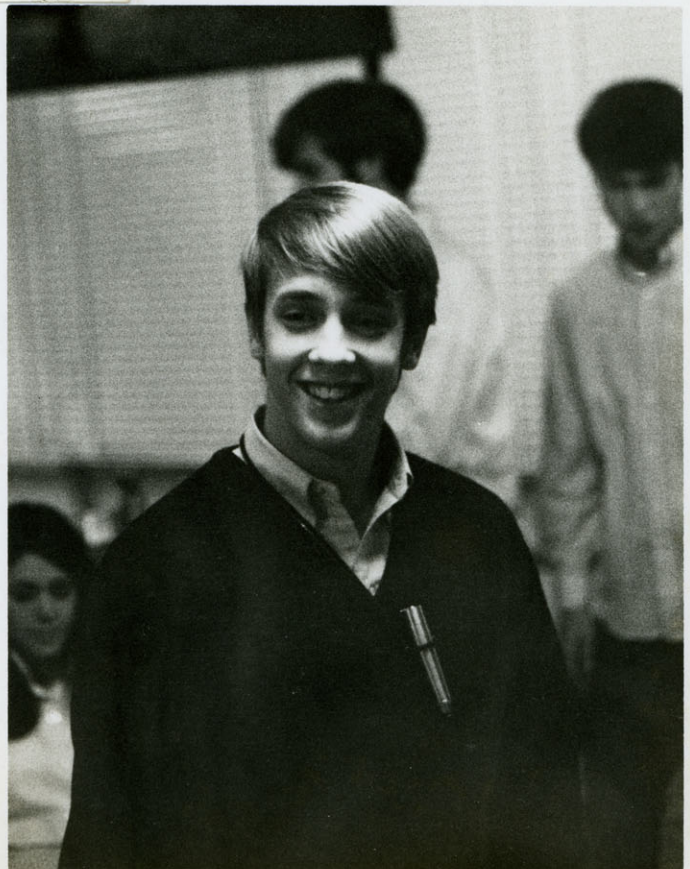

From Frustration

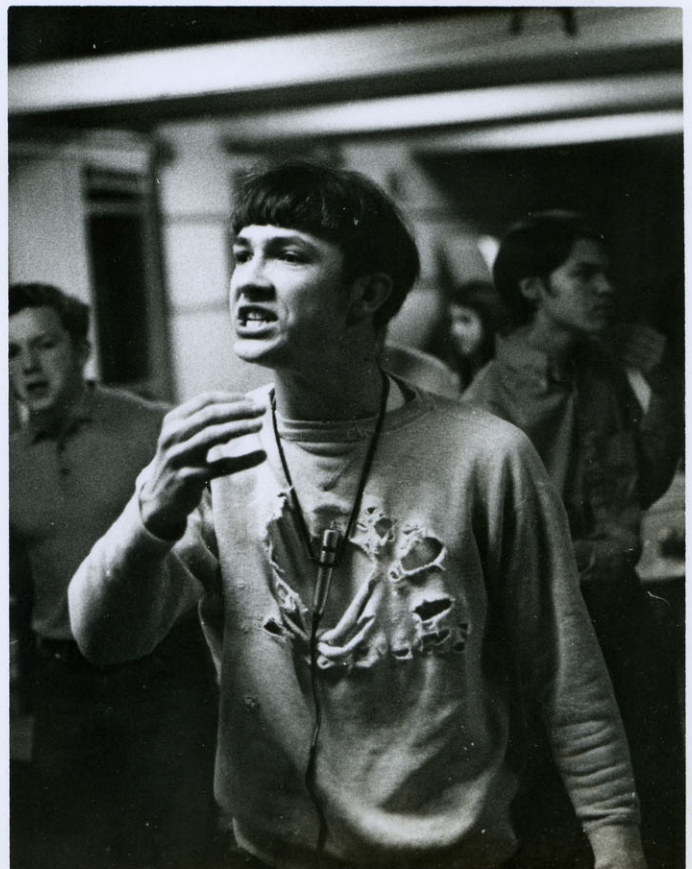

Or during a moving scene

Of course, there were moments when we felt SOY!

Or even Anger!

But most important was when we felt OKLAHOMA !

After weeks of hard work,
we made the big switch -

We moved from the commons to Theater No. 4 !

Not only did we have props and costumes,
but also a real stage!

After another week of hard work came the real thing!

Everyone seemed to be pleased with us-

And we were rather pleased with ourselves,

But we could never have made it without the direction of Mr. E. S. Gatlin!

Mr. Gatlin,

To express our respect and appreciation
we, the Oklahoma! cast (1969), leave you this book, in hopes that you will never forget Oklahoma! Thanks for some of the most treasured and memorable experiences ever possible!

God bless you always,
the Oklahoma! Cast-1969

Pictures: John Dieterman
Andy Hugby
Ricky Isbell
Dorie Zuk

Book and composition
Marge McGarry

